

[built a few years before 1812, half by Duke of Norfolk, half by tenants of Scales]

Fence separating Birkness and Scales Pasture

Loweswater Waste

Scales Pasture in Loweswater Scammilk beck

Braithwaite manor of & Coledale

Copper mine

(This side of Warnscale) Gatesgarth Inclosures formerly held under the Earl of Egremont

planted after 1840 manor of Loweswater

Birkness Close enc. c.1760

Horse Close

Wastes in the Forest of Gatesgarth and Manor of Braithwaite and Coledale

Out Close

Intack or In Close

Marshes or Moss Green

Tip Close enc. c.1770

manor of Loweswater

Warnscale

A Plan of the DUKE OF NORFOLK's ancient FREEHOLD ESTATE at Gatesgarth in Buttermere

Dated 1812, the original legend is given in informal Roman script. The later Marshall Birkness/Burtness enclosures are shown dashed note: this estate, and the lakes of Buttermere and Crummock, were in the township of Buttermere

Based on CACW/DWM1/36/8, CACW/DWM11/402&408/1

Haystack Haystack Haystack

Spedding's slate quarry

Round How

Brant Cragg

three Footed Brander